Dear Suresh Vallivedu,

Congratulations, you have been conditionally accepted into the Graduate Certificate - Project Management program offered through Professional and Continuing Education at the Creekbank Site campus, beginning April 29th, 2024!

Algoma University is proud to be a student-centred, teaching-focused university that cultivates cross-cultural learning between staff, faculty and students from across Canada and around the world. Whether it's one-on-one interactions with faculty, experiential learning inside and outside of the classroom or undergraduate research opportunities, Algoma University students have the opportunity to leave their mark on campus and make a difference in their community, while preparing themselves for a career in a variety of different fields. We're excited to offer you a place in our growing community of students.

Please review this Preliminary Letter of Acceptance thoroughly to ensure you understand your next steps, policies and deadlines.

Accepting Your Alternate Intake

You have earned a Preliminary Letter of Acceptance to a primary intake, as well as an alternate intake. If we have not received a deposit by the deposit deadline for the primary intake, we will automatically defer your Preliminary Letter of Acceptance to the alternate intake date. Campus and program availability is subject to change.

Alternate Brampton Campus Site - Creekbank Site

This program is officially run through the Algoma University - Brampton Campus. The physical location that the program is being hosted from is an alternate site in Mississauga at 5110 Creekbank Road. This alternate site is considered a part of the Brampton campus. All Algoma University programs, including this one, are run through DLI Number: O19395422197.

Program Capacity

Algoma University reserves the right to close applications, limit tuition deposits, limit seats in academic programs or change advertised deadlines, without advance notice, in order to manage the capacity of our academic programs. The university will provide alternate options to students, including program changes, campus changes, and intake changes.

Proof of Study Permit Application Deadline

Algoma University requires applicants to submit proof of their study permit application no later than ten weeks before the first day of classes for their scheduled intake. This deadline is to ensure that students are applying for their study permit early enough so that they are likely to get their visa in time to meet our Visa Stamp/Letter of Introduction (LOI) Deadline. Applicants who do not meet this deadline will be required to defer their application to the next available intake for their program.

Refund Policy

We highly encourage students to read and understand our International Student Refund Policy. Please visit <https://employees.algomau.ca/services/wsDocuments/4648> to view the policy in full. You can also find it on our website at <https://www.algomau.ca/internationalrefunds>.

Visa Stamp Deadline

Algoma University requires applicants to submit a copy of their visa stamp or Letter of Introduction (LOI) no later than five weeks before the first day of classes for their scheduled intake. This deadline is to ensure that the university can finalise its class sections and schedules for the beginning of the semester. Applicants who do not meet this deadline will be required to defer their application to the next available intake for their program.
